YOWICCN... "TOGETHER WE STAND"

OUR MISSION

To serve with humility and diligence, towards the unity in one faith, sustained Christian lifestyle, common witness and fellowship, ensuring that the administrative and spiritual heartbeat of the Youth Wing beats in harmony with the mission of YOWICCN — to facilitate capacity building of Christian youths and the God-ward orientation of the society.

OUR VISION

To build a vibrant, united, and Spirit-filled youth body that reflects the love, discipline and excellence of Christ, and prepare youths to be selfless and fearless with the mission of Jesus Christ to the uttermost part of God's creation, through effective coordination, communication, and collaboration, alongside the National Youth Leader and other members of the National Executive Council.

PROTOCOLS

The General Secretary of the Christian Council of Nigeria, Rt Rev. Dr Evans Onyemara; the Director of Youth Directorate, Ven Dr Samson Chukwuemeka Ezea; members of the Electoral Committee; members of the outgoing National Executive Council, ably led by the National Youth Leader, Barr. Emmanuel Ekpa; Delegates from all Denominations, ably led by the National Presidents/Chairmen; Delegates from the Zones and States ably led by the Chairmen; Distinguished Honourary Attendees; Fathers in the Faith; Brothers and Sisters in Christ. Grace and peace be multiplied unto you all in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

With humility in my heart and a deep sense of duty, I, Amb Ene Martha Sunday, present myself to serve as General Secretary of the Youth Wing Christian Council of Nigeria (YOWICCN), not out of ambition, but because I am compelled by grace — the same grace that empowers us to serve faithfully and follow Jesus our Example (1 Corinthians 15:10).

For the past few years, I've dedicated myself to serving and empowering Christian youths. I have served in various youth platforms across my denomination - Methodist Church Nigeria, and I have seen firsthand both the challenges we face and the immense potential we possess as Christian youth of Nigeria.

Before I proceed, permit me to sincerely acknowledge and commend the current leadership of YOWICCN, led by Barr. Emmanuel Ekpa Attai. Their selfless service, commitment to Christ-centric leadership, and resilience laid a solid foundation upon which we can confidently build. They have moved YOWICCN forward in difficult times and shown what leadership can achieve when it is rooted in vision and unity.

If given the mandate to serve as National Scribe of YOWICCN, I promise to work closely with the National Youth Leader and members of the incoming NEC to consolidate on their gains and carry forward the torch of unity in one faith, sustained Christian lifestyle, common witness, and fellowship of Christian Youth of CCN, which they have so honourably upheld.

Since its inception in 1929, the Christian Council of Nigeria (CCN) has stood as a beacon for Christian unity, social justice, and ethical leadership in advancing God's work in Nigeria. I fully align with this noble mandate, and I pledge not to deviate from the founding vision.

PROFILE OF AMB ENE MARTHA SUNDAY

Amb Ene Martha Sunday, born on February 4, 1993, is a dynamic Christian youth leader, a passionate and devoted member of the Youth Wing of the Christian Council of Nigeria (YOWICCN), with nearly a decade of progressive youth leadership experience across various youth councils and public service. Her journey from local church leadership to Diocesan leadership demonstrates her dedication to the Christian youth, her passion for youth development, and her commitment to national service.

Early Life and Education Ene Martha Sunday began her educational journey at LEA Primary School, Lugbe, Abuja (2002–2007). She proceeded to the prestigious Eje Royal International School, Aku, Mararaba in Nasarawa State, where she completed her O'Level in 2013. She gained admission into the Benue State University, Makurdi, Benue State, where she studied Educational Guidance and Counselling, graduating with a Bachelor of Education (B.Ed). During her National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) in Abuja, she served with the Nigerian Air Force Directorate of Civil-Military Relations. (DCMR).

Leadership Experience Ene's leadership journey began during her undergraduate years. She was elected as Cathedral Circuit Youth Treasurer in the Abuja Diocese in her 200-level year. In her 300-level, she won the position of Secretary of the Students Counselling Association of Nigeria (SCASSON), BSU Chapter. Her impeccable integrity, good sense of duty and proven maturity led to her election as Local Church President of Bethel Methodist Church, Lugbe, in the year 2020.

In 2024, she emerged as the Abuja Diocesan Youth President of her denomination, the Methodist Church Nigeria, consolidating her reputation as a fearless, principled, and visionary Christian youth leader. Under her stewardship, Abuja Diocese has experienced unprecedented growth in membership through evangelism, educational support programs in partnership with the leadership of the church, and ecumenical engagements.

She is a member of the International Organisation of Management Professionals (IOMP) and also a member of the Institute for Conflict Resolution, Peacebuilding and Conciliation (ICRPC).

MY CORE OBJECTIVES

Ene Martha Sunday seeks to digitalise the record-keeping processes of YOWICCN. Her vision is anchored on four pillars: Administrative and Communication Excellence, Spiritual Growth and Godly Leadership, Unity in Diversity, and Empowerment and Capacity Building.

MANIFESTO

This manifesto represents the vision, mission, and strategic action plan of Amb Ene Martha Sunday as I aspire to serve as the National Secretary of the Youth Wing of Christian Council of Nigeria (YOWICCN).

STRATEGIC 4-POINT AGENDA

1. ADMINISTRATIVE AND COMMUNICATION EXCELLENCE

- I will strive to maintain accurate and timely documentation of all minutes, action points and attendance summaries of meetings and programs, while providing digital archives of such documents for easy access and transparent record-keeping.
- I will ensure that all circulars, letters and correspondence are written and dispatched promptly.
- I will implement a digital register of members using Google Forms and update the rollcall of states and denominations in YOWICCN with the support of the NEC, Zonal and State Chapters.
- I will ensure the timely submission of routine reports of the activities of the National YOWICCN at NEC meetings and the General Assembly, to promote trust and credibility.

2. SPIRITUAL GROWTH AND GODLY LEADERSHIP

- I will work with the National Youth Leader to promote programs that deepen our spiritual lives — Bible studies, prayer retreats, and discipleship trainings.
- I will always encourage Christian evangelistic programmes, projects and leadership development among youths.
- I will always uphold the highest standards of Christian ethics, conduct, etiquette and discipline amongst the youth.

3. UNITY IN DIVERSITY

- In collaboration with the National Youth Leader and other members of the NEC, I will strengthen the bond among member churches and denominations under the CCN.
- I will strive to promote inclusive participation and teamwork across all youth structures.

4. EMPOWERMENT AND CAPACITY BUILDING

- With the support of the NEC, I will organise leadership, entrepreneurship, and career development seminars for young Christians.
- I will support creative initiatives that promote Christian values and social impact, and are aimed at making Christ known to all parts of the country and the world.

CONCLUSION

If elected, I will serve with commitment, creativity, and Christlike integrity — ensuring that YOWICCN continues to shine as a light to our generation.

Together, Compelled by Grace, we will make the Youth Wing stronger, more united, and more impactful for the Kingdom of God.
